Miserable pluts they are. They were purchased by some tascally con-tractor at forty or fifty dollars each, many of them being boken winded, spayined and blind. make money, but to assist the Government in pusting down this unholy rebellion. They remind me of daily transactions in our camp. A good Union man walked six miles to this office the other day for the purpose of collecting fifty cents for a load of straw, (the usual price). He said he would not have sold it but he feared the rebels might get it, in which case he would have to take oad money. I suppose he meant Confederate bonds. We run our hand into Unole Sam's Treasury, and brought forth a bran-new eagle half dollar, taking his receipt for the same on two large printed blanks, which satisfied him that transacting business with the Government was a matter of no small importance. I asked him if he would not like to enlist. "Well," said he, "how much do you pay?" I answered him thirteen dollars per month, rations, clothing, and at the end of the war, perhaps, 160 acres of land. His reply was that Buckner was giving twenty, and as much land as he Believing he would come in good play in the next war, we passed him by, to give place to another customer who was in waiting at the door for his turn at the public crib. He evidently had seen some soldiering, judging from the salute he gave, by raising one hand to his hat, while he extended to me his bill with the other. The bill was for the rent of a house, which he graciously opened to the sick on the day of the great and memorable battle of Green river. The bill read as

Military Etiquette.

Messrs. Editors: The profession of arms, n observing some of the courtesies of ancient chivalry, have undoubtedly mitigated very much the barbarity of war, and afforded many topics of relief to the mind when contemplating the horrid results of battle. But all such conventionalities have their limits in the laws of justice and propriety, and are sometimes carried too far. An humble, but worthy, citizen of the Republic, in the midst of an unambitious life of usefulness and loyalty, is moved by a sense of his country's danger, joins the patriotic ranks of her defenders, and is shot down in battle. With few exceptions, his remains find such undistinguished and hurried burial upon the field as the exigencies of a campaign require, and he is seen no more, on earth, by those bereaved ones in his distant home, who are denied the melancholy satisfaction we all feel in adminisancholy satisfaction we all feel in adminis-tering the consolatory rites of Christian burial to our departed friends. But Felix Zollicoffer, a disappointed politician, who for years had been living upon the honors and bounty of his betrayed country, having placed himself at the head of a band of raitors, and spread terror and desolation through an unarmed and peaceful commu-nity of his fellow-citizens, is struck down by a patriot soldier in the midst of a career tenfold more atrocious than such as legitimately teminate in the penitentiary or the rated from the common dead, daintily handled and shrouded for imposing exhibition, and transported to the rebel lines in a sort of triumphal procession, made sol-emn and impressive by the military rank, symbols, and insignia belonging to the nation which he lost ha life in a perfidious attempt to destroy! What more could be done by their military associates to signalize the obsequies of a living Scott or a dead Lyon?

Nay, gentlemen of the army, in grateful

Nay, gentlemen of the army, in grateful consideration of your invaluable services to the country, your fellow-citizens acquiesce, most cheerfully, in much professional ceremony and etiquette, of which they cannot always perceive the utility or prepriety; but you should not outrage the vivid and jealous sentiment of loyalty which now rules in the breast of every true American, by such a prostitution of the "honors of war" as this. In the conduct of this war, your loyal fellow-citizens desire you to entertain the most tender regard, compatible with military activity and success, toward the lives and remains of their deluded countrymen, who constitute the mass of the rebel armies, and constitute the mass of the rebel armies, and particularly toward those whose youth, or mmature manhood, has been unable to withstand the sophistries of crafty politiundistinguished grave on the spot where he dies; all too much honored, even then, if he fall in Kentucky, by the privilege of resting in a loyal soil, which he has done his heat to dishonor and make desolate.

Interesting from Pensacola. DISBANDMENT OF ALABAMA TROOPS-MORTAL

lence of the Mobile Advertiser and Res WARRINGTON, FLA., Jan. 17, 1862. About three days ago nearly a dozen ne-groes escaped from Pensacola to Fort Pickens in a shall boat. There was negligence, of course, or it could not have hapthe charge of assisting them off. This is the second recent escape from our lines. During the Christmas, I believe it was, or the sun once more played upon the dreoping forms of our troops. Standing as had spiked the only two guns that could be brought to bear upon them. Those marines brought to bear upon them. Those marines are very "bad eggs." One of their officers deserted, and another was convicted by court martial of gress misconduct and dismissed the service.

The First Alabama regimant was the very first regiment in the Confederate service, and the first in the field. It is, therefore, the first to go out. Two companies—Capts. Clarke's and Mabry's, from Barbour county —were discharged yesterday. On the 9th of February two other companies—Captain
Smith's, formerly Captain Baker's, from

Last week he attended one of their dress parades, and made a speech to the regiment. His appeals were strong and earnest, and have one such regiment of veterans than three regiments of raw troops. During that day an effort was made to reorganize the regiment. Three companies — Captains Clarke's, Smith's, and Posey's—declined to reorganize in this regiment. The seven other companies furnished a small number each, about 250 in all. This number will probably be increased to 300 or 350 men in few days. It is expected then to fill up the regiment by recruits. Thus the First Alabama saves its name and its nominal existence. Besides the 250 who have re-enlisted in the regiment, 86 have re-enlisted in other corps. The remainder will go home, but most of them intend to re-enter the service at other points and in new corps. They wish to taste for a while the joys and re-enlisting here and now is the idea that the regiment is doomed to stay at this place. to go somewhere—anywhere else. Doubtless there are less pleasant places than this. There is much sickness and mortality in the new regiments—the Seventeenth Alabams, and the Fifth, Eighth, and Twenty-seventh Mississippi. I have not the exact number in each, but I have enough to know that the figures are startling. The old reg-iments are remarkably healthy, not more than one in a hundred being "off his legs," and deaths have ceased altogether.

Sr. Louis, Jan. 3 .- The following general order will be issued in the morning : HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF THE MISSOURI, Sr. Louis, Feb. 3, 1862. The President, Professors, Curators, and other officers of the University of Missouri, are required to take and subscribe the oath of allegiance prescribed by the sixth arti-cle of the State ordinance of Oct. 16, 1361, and to file the same in the office of the Provost Marshal General in this city. Those who fail to comply with this order, within the period of thirty days, will be consid-ered as having resigned their respective offices; and if any one who so fails, shall thereafter attempt to obtain pay or perform the functions of such office, he will be tried and punished for military offenses. This institution having been endowed by the Government of the United States, its funds should not be used to teach treason or to instruct traitors. The authorities of the University should, therefore, expel from its walls all persons who, by word or deed, favor, assist or abet rebellion.

The President and Directors of all railroad companies in this State, will be required to take and subscribe the oath of llegiance in the form, within the time, and under the penalty prescribed in the preceding paragraph. They will also be required to file bonds for such sums as may be designated by the Provost Marshal General, that they will employ no conductor, engineers. neer, station masters or other offic agents or employees, who have not taken the oath of allegiance, and who are not loyal to the Union.

Last August, Mr. Sturges, hearing from headquarters at St. Louis that the government would require a dozen steam-tugs for service on the Mississippi, became the sole owner of the Mulford, valued at $5,000. After being thoroughly repaired and strengthened, she was taken to St. Louis via the Illinois Canal and river, at an additional cost of $2,500. No government agent at St. Louis was authorized to purchase the tug, but premise was made that Frement would be communicated with on the subject. Mr. Sturges returned home; and in ten days learned that the boat had been taken possession of by order of the Provest Marshal, and was being used as a guard-boat. The next news the lauding, neglected, and had sunk. Mr. Sturges then communicated to Secretary Welles. He was referred by that functionary to Secretary Cameron, then to Quartermaster General Meigs, and by that official to Gen. Halleck. In the meantime the tug had been raised by the St. Louis Wharfmaster, and sold for $600; and a few days since Mr. Sturges was informed he could redeem her for $1,400. DRAKE DE KAY,

TESTIMONIALS.

From Maj.-Gen'l JOHN A. DIX.

I have tried your pistol, "Young America," and am exceedingly please with it. It shoots with great force and accuracy. I have given the best evid of my confidence in it by purchasing it for my own use. I am truly yours,

DOUBLE DERINGER.

From 9th REG'T MICHIGAN INFANTRY.

CHAS. TEMPLE DIX.

CAMP MULDRAUGH'S HILL. WEST POINT, KY., Dec. 2d, 1861 Dear Sir-My Company of the 9th Regiment Michigan Infantry have supplied themselves with your ten-shooters, and are highly pleased with them. I am frank to say it is the most reliable revolver I have ever seen.

> Very respectfully. Lt. B. W. HORNBECK, Co. I. 9th Regiment Michigan Infantry.

Gen'l Baker says:

Extracts from the Press.

"We consider the LINDSAY REVOLVERS the ne plus ultra of Fire-Arms."

"For personal defense LINDSAY's Fire Arms have no equals." "The pistols got up by the J. P. Lindsay Manufacturing Co., are thoroughly and perfectly made, and have no superiors. "Mr. LINDBAY has demonstrated the fact that ten shots can be fired from a single revolver with as much ease and safety as five."

"The Lindsay Repeaters have elicited the strongest approval wherever used. We commend them to our brave volunteers." "It is not larger than the ordinary revolver, but is twice as effective, and shoots with greater force." "One of Lindsay's pistols is in fact a pair of the common pistol."

"For a pooket-pistol, and as a ready means of sure defense, LINDSAY's single-barrel Double Deringer is unequaled." "The safety and rapidity in firing make the LINDSAT arms superior to any arm yet invented. Many brave volunteers will save from the fact of having TWO shots at command by ONCE COCKING."

"One very great and important advantage of the LINDSAY arms is :-- TWO SHOTS CAN BE FIRED, IF DESIRED, AT T AME TIME WITH PERFECT SAFETY."

The J. P. LINDSAY MANUFACTURING CO., Wangatuck, Conn., are sole Manufacture of Lindsay's Patent Pire-Arms; Also, Manufacturers of Camp Hnives. Forks and Spoons, Knir and Forks, and Bowie Knives for Army use. We defy Competition in QUALITY and PRICES.

XXXVIIth Congress-First Session. Washington, Feb. 4.—Senate—Mr. Pome. roy asked to take up a resolution offered yesterday relative to the command of the Department of Kansas, &c., and calling on the Secretary of War for the orders and directions in regard to the supplies for that command—whether it is to be commanded by Gen. Lane; whether the orders have been changed since Lane left, and whether the order of General Hunter is according to the orders of the War Department. Passed.
Mr. Hale moved to take up the bill pro-alluding to the state of the war, he said that General McCiellan must harvest his advan-tages within the next ninety days; other-wise he will be gazetted as a gentleman, but not as a General.

Mr. Roscoe Conklin said there should be some policy worthy of the occasion. Let us have no makeshifts and subterfuges to dodge honest taxation. Let us say, flat-footed, what the truth is and what we mean. Mr. Bingham said that Mr. Webster did assessent to the proposition that the Government of the United States may authorize

RIVER MATTERS.

The river was still rising bat evening, but more wly, and it is expected that the rise will have reached its highest before noon to-day-consequently, there are no apprehensions entertained by any of the denizens of Water street of being driven out of their houses again. The rise during the 24 hours ending at 5 o'clock in the vening, was about one foot nine inches, leaving seventeen feet of water in the canal. The weather has again changed, and yesterday was beautifully clear, and last night frosty without being really cold. The wharfyesterday was pretty well occupied wt la steamers, loading and discharging, and presented a more heartsome appearance than it has done for several days. The Superior, Cincinnati, and Lancaster No. 3, Carroliton, came in and returned with about their average trips. The Woodford, to Henderson, Commodors Perry from Pittsburg, Prima Donna, Pittsburg to Cairo, New Golden State, to Paducah, and Tom Jenes, from Pius-burg, were the other arrivals and departures. The Com. Perry brought down from Pittsburg alot of heavyguns and carriages, shells, shot, &c. The Prima Donna was loaded with munitions of war bound for Cairo. The Tom Jones arrived from Pittsburg with a towof coal-some forty or fifty thousand bushels. The Ida May was loading for some up river point with tobacco, &c , and the St. Louis left for Pittsburg with the brass band lately attached to Gen. Negley's brigads. Mr. Hale moved to take up the bill providing for iron-clad steamers. Agreed to.

Mr. Hale proposed to withdraw both the amendments of the Committee, and asked the Senate to make the subject the special order for Friday, when they would hear him.

Mr. Hale, on the report of the Naval Committee, in regard to the Secretary of the Navy, hoped the Senate would pass the bill as it came from the House.

On motion of Mr. Hale, the report of the Naval Committee on the Secretary of the Navy was taken up and made the special order for Friday.

The bill to provide iron clad vessels was recommitted to the Naval Committee.

Mr. Bright's case was then taken up.

House.—Mr. Morrill spoke at length against Mr. Spanding's bill. Hedid not obe ject to paper issues to a limited extent, but wished to establish bounds for it. In alluding to the state of the war, he said that General McClellan must harvest his advan lowing in relation to river matters down below:

Somerset, Jan. 28, 1862. Among the mass of public and private correspondence captured by our troops in the intrenchments opposite Mill Springs, perhaps the most interesting collection of official letters was contained in the letter-book of Col. W. B. Wood, of the Sixteenth official letters was contained in the letter-book of Col. W. B. Wood, of the Sixteenth Alabama, one of the rebel regiments engaged in the battle of the 19th instant. He had been post commandant at Knoxville, East Tennessee, and in that capacity had constant correspondence with Secretary Benjamin, Generals Johnston, Zollicoffer, Walker, Carroll, &c. His letter-book contains, gaged are to be treated as prisoners of war, and sent with an armed guard to Tuscalindeed, the secret history of all the military movements in East Tennessee during the last summer, and especially of the Union rising in November last. It is full of value with an armed guard to Tuscaliossa, Ala., there to be kept imprisoned at the depot selected by the Government for prisoners of war.

Whenever you can discover that arms are rising in November last. It is full of valuable and interesting information, but a dozen of your columns would hardly hold its contents even in a condensed form. For the present, I have extracted the official account of Zollicoffer of the Wild Cat affair, and letters of Colonel Wood to Adjutant General Cooper and Secretary Benjamin, and the latter's reply thereto. From the admissions made in them, the fact of the existence of an overwhelming Union sentiment in East Tennessee, in spite of all Becession terrorism, is evident. Secession terrorism, is evident.

Lieutenant-Colonel Markall, Ass't Adjut't General, Bowlinggreen, Ky .:

On the 21st, I reached the enemy's in-trenched camp on Rockcastle Hill, a natural fertification almost inaccessible. Having reconneitered it in force under heavy fire for several hours, from heights on the right, left and in front, I became satisfied that it could not be carried otherwise than by increased exposure, if at all. The enemy received large reinforcements. Our loss was 11 killed and 42 wounded. We took 21 prisoners, about a hundred guns, 24 horses. The loss of the enemy in killed and deblity in advance of their years, before imparting wounded, unknown. The country is so their secrets to any one, should first read Dr. Gates poor we had exhausted the forage on the road, for fifteen miles back, in twenty-four hours. KNOXVILLE, Nov. 20, 1861.

J. P. Benjamin, Secretary of War: Bir-The rebellion in East Tennessee has been put down in some of the counties, and will be effectually suppressed in a few weeks in all the counties. Their camps in Sweet and Hamilton counties have been broken up, and a large number of them made prisoners. Some are confined in jail at this place, and others sent to Nashville. In a former communication I inquired of the Department what I should do with them. It is a mere farce to arrest them and turn them L. S. B. DE C. & L. H. We have now in custody some of their leaders-Judge Patterson, the son-in-law of Andrew Johnson, Colonel Pickens, the Senator in the Legislature from Sevier and other counties, and several members of the Legislature, besides others of influence and some distinction in their counties. These men have encouraged this destring the rebellion, but have so managed as not to all my found in arms; nevertheless, all their actions and words have been hostile to the Confederate States. The influence of their wealth, position and connection has been exerted in favor of the Lincoln Government, and they are the parties most to blame for the troubles in East Tonnessee. They really deserve the gallows, and if consistent with the laws, ought speedily to receive their deserts. But there is such a continuous to consider the South and the a gentle spirit of conciliation in the South that I have no idea that one of them will receive such a sentence at the hands of any jury empanneled to try them. I have been here at this station for three months, half the time in command of the post, and I have had a good opportunity of learning the feeling pervading the country; it is hostile to the Confederate Government. They are the followers and slaves of Johnson and Maynard, and never intend to be otherwise. When accosted they suddenly became very submissive, and declare they are for peace and not supporters of the Lincoln Govern-ment, but yet they claim to be Union men. Theost recent improvements, are nearly noiseless when in operation, run with the greatest case and rapidity, and are better adapted for general purposes and annity use than any other. They are not lingues and cout of order, are exceedingly simple, and are made expressly for real practical utility; they do every variety of sewing, from the finest woven tissue to the heaviest woolets goods, both tailoring and fine leather work. Any person may learn to operate them in a very short time. The great difficulty with all other old-style Machin nuch complication, requiring so much com-nent, and such an amount of mechanical entity to use them to advantage, as to reand ingenuity to use them to advantage, as to render them of little comparative value.

But the Sewing Mischines manufactured by Greenan & True are not liable to these objections, as any person, on even a moment's examination, will readily discover. They will do more and better work than any other Machine ever offered to the public, making the most beautiful lock-stitch, alike on both sides. Send for an off-hand specimen of sowing upon any material you wish, and you will then see how it is done.
